A BILL

To amend the Communications Act of 1934 to prohibit the interception of communications by persons other than public officers and employees in the exercise of their official duties.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
3 That section 605 of the Communications Act of 1934 (47
4 U. S. C., sec. 605) is amended by striking out "and no
5 person not being authorized by the sender" and inserting 6 in lieu thereof the following: "and no person, other than 7 an officer or employee of the United States or of the govern-
8 ment of a State or political subdivision thereof in the exer-
9 cise of his official duties, shall intercept any communication 10 unless authorized by the sender; and no person not being

1 authorized by the sender (whether or not he is such an 2 officer or employee in the exercise of his official duties) ”.

3 SEC. 2. The amendment made by the first section of this 4 Act shall apply only with respect to offenses committed on 5 and after the date of the enactment of this Act.
